

Active transportation

Resource	Organization	Description
Active Transportation Resources	Alberta Centre for Active Living	A collection of resources for promoting active living through urban design.
PBIC Resources	Pedestrian and Bicycle Information Center	National clearinghouse of pedestrian and bicycle information about health and safety, engineering, advocacy, education, enforcement, access, and mobility for pedestrians (including transit users) and bicyclists. Includes data & resources, community support, planning & design, training & events, and programs & campaigns.
Case Study Compendium	Pedestrian and Bicycle Information Center	Collection of case studies covering pedestrian and bicycle projects and programs from across the US and abroad.
Active Transportation Resources	Clean Air Partnership	Listing of current active transportation projects in City of Toronto.
Complete Streets Program	Smart Growth America	Resource for communities and agencies that are working toward creating a safe, comfortable, integrated transportation network for all users, regardless of age, ability, income, ethnicity, or mode of transportation.
Complete Streets for Canada	Toronto Centre for Active Transportation	Policy and design hub for building safe and inviting streets for all.